III. Notes on Voting at the General Meeting

(1) Shareholders of the Company exercising their voting rights via the Shanghai Stock Exchange's online voting system for general meetings may either log in to the trading system voting platform (via the trading terminal of their designated securities firm) or log in to the internet voting platform (website: vote.sseinfo.com) to cast their votes. Investors logging in to the internet voting platform for the first time must complete shareholder identity verification. Please refer to the instructions on the internet voting platform website for specific procedures.

(2) Where the same voting right is exercised repeatedly via in-person voting, the Exchange's online voting platform or other means, the result of the first vote shall prevail.

(3) Shareholders holding multiple shareholder accounts may exercise a total number of voting rights equal to the aggregate number of ordinary shares of the same class and preference shares of the same type held across all their shareholder accounts.

Shareholders holding multiple shareholder accounts who participate in the online voting for the General Meeting via the Exchange's online voting system may do so through any of their shareholder accounts. Upon casting a vote, it shall be deemed that votes of the same opinion have been cast separately for the ordinary shares of the same class and the preference shares of the same type held under all their shareholder accounts.

Where a shareholder holding multiple shareholder accounts casts duplicate votes through those accounts, the voting opinions for the ordinary shares of the same class and the preference shares of the same type held under all their shareholder accounts shall be determined by the result of the first vote cast for each respective class and type of share.

(4) Shareholders may only submit their votes once they have voted on all resolutions.
